13-year supplier to world-class buyers

We've specialized in OEM fashion accessories for 13 years, developing the expertise that has won the repeat business of companies such as Avon and Elle. These big buyers appreciate our attention to detail and quality. We're discerning in our selection of raw materials, 50 percent of which come from Japan and South Korea. We also use equipment from Japan, the US and Germany.

Our product range includes necklaces, earrings, rings, belts, bracelets, bangles and brooches. And we make sure that our products will last by employing 25 QC officers to inspect each product before shipment.

With a 5,000m<sup>2</sup> factory, 300 workers and four production lines, we have a monthly capacity of 600,000 pieces – all azo- and nickel-free. Orders for as few as 1,000 pieces are welcome. And our designers develop up to 1,000 new styles monthly. Visit our Global Sources Online showroom, and then contact us today.
