With 12 years' manufacturing experience, we offer eco-friendly items that are targeted at Western markets. In fact, more than 95 percent of our exports go to the US and countries in Europe.

Our creative R&D team is dedicated to transforming concepts to reality, and we can turn your designs, drawings, ideas or materials into a real product in three days. Each of your orders will be processed in our ten production lines operated by our well-trained and skilled staff, which can fill both large and small orders.

We offer not only a range of products – from outdoor jackets, workwear, casual pants, woven shirts and T-shirts, to organic cotton baby ponchos and rompers – but also a dedication to safety standards. Our QC team conducts strict inspection procedures to ensure our products meet international AQL and quality standard requirements, and our factory operations are ISO 9001:2000-certified.
