Source Huntkey-brand electronic products from a supplier with over 21 years' experience

Domestically renowned power supplies

Huntkey Enterprise Group, founded in 1995, is a producer of electronic appliances and devices with a reputation for making excellent power supplies. In fact, we're a member of the Power Supply Manufacturer Association and known as one of the first and best private companies in Shenzhen. With a state-recognized trademark, we are one of the top PC power supply manufacturers in mainland China since 2000.

Accredited facilities

We have nine laboratories, which were acknowledged by the China National Accreditation Committee in 2012. Designated as an electronic engineering technology center in Shenzhen, the facilities have reliability, material, function, optical, simulation, safety, EMC, acoustical and HALT laboratories.

Wide clientele

Over the years, Huntkey has won credibility from numerous domestic and international clients, including Lenovo,

Huawei, Haier, ZTE, Dell and Best Buy. In 2011, we won Lenovo's Diamond Prize, an award that is limited to their global suppliers. Join Huawei, Haier, ZTE, Dell and Best Buy in sourcing our products by contacting us today.
