What We Do

GLOBAL SOURCING
We identify and source FMCG products from established manufacturers and trusted suppliers, with a focus on product quality, commercial competitiveness and dependable supply.

INTERNATIONAL TRADING
We facilitate the movement of consumer products between suppliers and customers across international markets, managing commercial requirements and coordinating supply efficiently.

DISTRIBUTION
We support customers with reliable product supply and flexible distribution solutions designed around their individual market and volume requirements.

MARKET DEVELOPMENT
We work with partners to identify new market opportunities and develop sustainable commercial relationships for FMCG products.

From trusted suppliers to your market.

Why Maubis Trading B.V.?

Reliable Partnerships
We believe successful international trade starts with trust. We aim to build long-term relationships with suppliers, distributors, wholesalers, retailers and other commercial partners.

Quality Focus
We work with products and suppliers that meet agreed commercial and quality requirements, while maintaining appropriate attention to product specifications and documentation.

Competitive Sourcing
Our international trading approach enables us to identify commercially attractive sourcing opportunities and respond to changing market requirements.

Flexibility
From individual product requirements to larger-volume supply programs, we seek practical solutions that fit our customers' needs.

International Approach
With the Netherlands as our base, MAUBIS TRADING B.V. is positioned to serve international customers and partners through European and global trade networks.

Our Business Network

Manufacturers → Maubis Trading B.V. → Importers / Distributors → Retailers → Consumers

We create connections between FMCG producers and businesses seeking reliable access to consumer products.
