Briefing

Simple story of persistence

Being an independent fashion designer and manufacturer, Summa derived from Liaoning Times, one of China's leading garment exporters in 2011, firstly in name of “Mega Trading” then renamed to “Summa International” in 2014 and we are affectionately called “Summa” by our dear partners.

Summa survives in persistence of value-added service. With dedicated team, we believe the only thing unchanged is changing, the versatile services including but not limited to ODM/OEM, vertical sourcing as converter and delivery in DDP etc. have been online for quite a few years, we over deliver than the private labels expected always.

Backed by qualified professional bulk factories and in-house R&D facilities , we started with tailored suits and overcoats and then got casual outwear and professional uniforms etc. in portfolio.

We do BIG &TALL's.

Being an integrity of technology orientation entrepreneur, Summa keeps curious in know-how, so whenever you have need for assistance in developments, we will be right here.
