BASEBALL CAP

A baseball cap is a hat with a hard brim that was originally designed for baseball players to shade from the sun and protect the eyes from direct sunlight.

Baseball caps are not only used in baseball, they have also become popular casual clothing, and people all over the world like to wear them.

Modern baseball caps come in a variety of styles and brands, which can be chosen according to personal preferences and styles.

DAD HAT

The definition of the dad hat is very broad, but it is actually a baseball cap with a curved brim.

Cap body is usually in plain coloured cotton is made, mostly with some embroidery subtitles or design.

Whats the difference with snapback or camp is the material and structure.

The dad hat is softer and looser, and even when placed naturally, it will spread on a flat surface.
